This policy is reviewed annually to ensure ways of working in the centre are accurately reflected and that exams and assessments are conducted to current JCQ (and awarding body) regulations, instructions and guidance.

This policy will be communicated to all relevant centre staff.

Reviewed exam-related policies, including this policy, are communicated to staff via SLT.

JCQ key documentation is shared with SLT when it has been released, by the EO (via line manager) or, where applicable to all staff, in Teams (general chat):

- General Regulations
- Suspected Malpractice Policies and Procedures
- A guide to the special consideration process
- Documents relating to conducting coursework and non-exam assessments, including those related to AI, plagiarism, sharing non-examination work and informing candidates of centre-assessed marks
- Documents that have been shared with candidates

Roles and responsibilities overview

(GR 2)
The head of centre is the individual who is accountable to the awarding bodies for ensuring that the centre is always compliant with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements to ensure the security and integrity of the examinations/ assessments. This individual must have the authority to deploy the necessary resources to ensure that the centre is always compliant in meeting published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements.

The examinations officer is the person appointed by the head of centre to act on behalf of, and be the main point of contact for, the centre in matters relating to the general administration of awarding body examinations and assessments.

The head of centre cannot also be the examinations officer. A head of centre and an examinations officer are two distinct and separate roles.

The head of centre and/or examinations officer may operate across more than one centre. In such cases the head of centre must ensure there is suitable senior leadership team and examinations officer support in place, so they can meet their obligations across all centres for which they are responsible. The head of centre must ensure that these arrangements are covered by their examination contingency plan.

Head of centre responsibilities

(GR 1)
Heads of centre must ensure that senior leadership teams and exam office personnel familiarise themselves with the entire contents of the current General Regulations for Approved Centres (GR) booklet. In particular, heads of centre must familiarise themselves with paragraphs 5.1, 5.3 and 5.4.

Heads of centre must ensure that relevant members of staff respond promptly to requests and/or actions raised by the JCQ Centre Inspection Service. Failure to do so could result in the centre not receiving or being able to access question papers and other confidential assessment materials. Ultimately, awarding bodies could withdraw approval of the centre.

Heads of centre must ensure that relevant members of staff respond promptly to requests for information from awarding bodies relating to the administration and conducting of examinations/assessments.

(ICE Introduction) It is the responsibility of the head of centre to ensure that all staff comply with the instructions in the Instructions for conducting examinations document. Failure to do so may constitute malpractice as defined in the JCQ document Suspected Malpractice: Policies and Procedures, 1 September 2025 to 31 August 2026.

(GR 5.1)

The head of centre must ensure:

- compliance with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements to deliver the qualification(s)
- appropriate controls are in place which ensure accurate data is submitted to the awarding bodies by the required deadlines, e.g. registrations, entries, learner claims, centre-assessed marks or modified papers
- all reasonable steps are taken to respond promptly to requests for information or documentation made by an awarding body or regulatory authority

Head of centre

- Understands the contents, refers to and directs relevant centre staff to current JCQ documents including:

    - Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments (AARA)
    - AI Use in Assessments: Your role in protecting the integrity of qualifications
    - Guidance for centres on cyber security
    - Instructions for conducting coursework (ICC)
    - Instructions for conducting examinations (ICE)

- Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments (GCE and GCSE specifications) (NEA)
- Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments (Vocational and Technical Qualifications) (NEA VTQs)
- Notice to Centres – Informing candidates of their centre-assessed marks
- Plagiarism in Assessments – Guidance for Teachers/Assessors
- Suspected Malpractice – Policies and Procedures (SMPP)

- Ensures the centre has appropriate accommodation at the registered address to support the size of the cohorts being taught, including appropriate accommodation for candidates requiring access arrangements and/or practical assessments
- Where/if using a third party to deliver any part of a qualification (including the assessments or the administration) at the centre:
  - maintains oversight of, and responsibility for, the delivery and administration of the qualification in accordance with JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements
  - has in place a robust written agreement with the third party (unless exclusions apply), that includes provisions which ensure that qualifications are delivered in a way that complies with their agreement with the awarding body, to ensure there is a shared understanding of the arrangement and will manage the risk of failure by the third party to deliver the expected service
  - ensures that a copy of the written agreement is available for inspection if requested by the awarding body
  - monitors delivery by the third party to maintain compliance with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements, ensuring the security and integrity of examinations and assessments
  - ensures sufficient managerial and other resources are in place to resolve any issues
- Ensures that relevant members of staff respond promptly to requests and/or actions raised by the JCQ Centre Inspection Service, understanding that failure to do so could result in penalties (see National Centre Number Register and other information requirements section)
- Ensures that relevant members of staff respond promptly to requests for information from awarding bodies relating to the administration and conducting of examinations/assessments
- Ensures that the centre promptly reports any incidents to the relevant awarding body/bodies which might compromise any aspect of assessment delivery, such as a cyber-attack

- Ensures members of centre staff do not advise parents/candidates to contact awarding bodies/JCQ directly nor provide them with the names, addresses and contact details (including email addresses) of examiners, moderators, external verifiers and any other awarding body examining/assessment personnel/JCQ personnel

Resilience and contingency arrangements

(GR 3.16-19)

The centre must ensure they are familiar with the regulators' guidance and/or awarding body guidance on ensuring resilience in the qualifications system. Centres should consider putting in place a process for gathering and securely retaining evidence of candidate performance in line with the published guidance.

In the unlikely event that the government determines that examinations cannot go ahead, the centre will need evidence of candidate assessment performance, such as mock examinations, to enable alternative methods of awarding grades.

Process for gathering evidence of candidate assessment performance

After marking and data analysis, mock examination scripts are retained in the exams office until all outcomes of any post results services have been completed. Once this timescale has passed, all scripts are disposed of securely.

The centre must have an up to date written contingency plan.

The contingency plan must cover all aspects of examination/assessment administration and delivery. Senior leaders must have robust contingency arrangements in place that will minimise the risk to examination/assessment administration and delivery and any adverse impact on candidates.

The plan must cover the following scenarios:

- the head of centre, relevant senior leader(s) with oversight of examination and assessment administration, SENCo (or equivalent role), examinations officer or any other key staff essential to the examination process being absent at a critical stage of the examination cycle
- the potential impact of other events such as flooding, which could lead to all or parts of the centre becoming unavailable
- potential issues with the centre's IT systems.

As part of its contingency plan the centre must identify an alternative site or alternative sites which can be used if examinations cannot be conducted at the registered address. Larger centres may require more than one potential alternative site or different sites for different year groups.

The centre must have at least one senior member of staff (senior designated contact) who is available to manage emergency requests from awarding bodies that are results related during the summer holidays. However, a number of contacts can be provided to reduce the risk of this falling on one individual throughout the summer holidays.

The centre must ensure where candidates' work is produced electronically it is backed-up and should consider the contingency of candidates' work being backed-up on two separate devices, including one off-site back-up via the Cloud. The centre must implement appropriate security arrangements which protect candidates' work in the event of IT system corruption and cyber-attacks.

Cyber security

(GR 3.20-21)

The head of centre must ensure there are procedures in place to maintain the security of user accounts by:

- providing training for authorised staff on the importance of creating strong unique passwords and keeping all account details secret
- providing training for staff on awareness of all types of social engineering/ phishing attempts
- enabling additional security settings wherever possible
- ensuring that all members of centre staff who access awarding bodies' online systems undertake annual cyber security training

  The training must include:
  - the importance of creating strong, unique passwords for all accounts
  - keeping all account details strictly confidential
  - the critical role of Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) in protecting against unauthorised access
  - how to properly set up and use MFA for both centre and awarding bodies' systems
  - an awareness of all types of social engineering/phishing attempts
  - the importance of staff quickly reporting any suspicious activity, events, incidents and encouraging a safe and supportive reporting culture.

  Certificates of completed staff cyber training must be downloaded and held on file for inspection. The NCSC training resource provides a certificate of completion of cyber training.
- developing and maintaining a comprehensive cyber security policy for the centre. The National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) provides resources to assist centres in creating such policies
- implementing and enforcing robust security measures, including:
  - mandatory MFA for all accounts and systems containing exam-related information, including those that interface between awarding body and centre systems, to enhance security and protect sensitive data
  - regularly reviewing and updating security settings to align with current best practices

- updating any passwords that may have been exposed
- setting up secure account recovery options
- reviewing and managing connected applications
- monitoring accounts and regularly reviewing account access, including removing access when no longer required
- ensuring authorised members of staff securely access awarding bodies' online systems in line with awarding body regulations regarding cyber security and the JCQ document Guidance for centres on cyber security
  Authorised staff will have access, where necessary, to a device which complies with awarding bodies' multi-factor authentication (MFA) requirements.
- reporting any actual or suspected compromise of an awarding body's online systems immediately to the relevant awarding body

This details the subject, specification code, components, estimated number of candidates and the awarding body, as well as indicating whether there have been any changes from the previous year.

To support the entries process, an overview of subjects, titles, QNs, specification and component codes, along with number of candidates, is annually updated at the start of the academic year, using the entry code booklets from the relevant awarding bodies.

Final entries collection and submission procedure

The process of inputting exam entry information into sims begins in November.

codes, components QANs and names of candidates. Once confirmed, provisional statements of entry are then given to all candidates to check their details are correct, including name, candidate number, UCIs and the exams recorded in the statement.

Subject information in relation to a change to the original provisional entry form (for example in Languages, where students might change tier, or in the Sciences, where students might change to Combined Science) is collected in writing prior to entry submission.

Once all information has been verified, and confirmed by senior leaders, entries are then submitted, in advance of the 21st February deadline, via A2C.

In the latter part of the Autumn Term, private candidates will be sent a letter and preliminary entry form to complete. The letter will include information about applications, costs and identification.

Once both the form and payment have been received, information will then be sent to the candidates. This will include: a provisional statement of entry, JCQ Information for candidates and other related JCQ documents and the Candidate Handbook. Candidate late arrival

Exams officer

- Ensures that candidates who arrive very late for an exam are reported to the awarding body by submitting a report on candidate admitted very late to examination room using CAP to timescale
- Warns candidates that their script may not be accepted by the awarding body

Invigilators

- Are informed of the policy/process for dealing with late/very late arrival candidates through training
- Ensure that relevant information is recorded on the exam room incident log

Candidate Late Arrival Policy

If a candidate is within half an hour late for an exam, they must report straight to the school reception. If it is feasible for the student to sit the exam, the exams officer is to ensure supervision to the exam room, ensuring that the exam announcement is given in a way that does not disrupt other candidates already taking the exam. The candidate must be given the full time allocation for the exam and will not be permitted to leave early.

If a candidate is late by more than one hour of the awarding body's published start time (or after the published finish time for an exam that is less than one hour) they must report straight to reception and the following steps are to be taken:
• If it is feasible for the candidate to take the exam, ensure supervision to a suitable exam room, the exam announcement given in a way which does not disrupt other candidates and the full time for the exam given – the candidate will not be permitted to leave early.
• The candidate must be informed that the awarding body may not accept their script.
• The exams officer must report the late start to the awarding body by submitting Form JCQ/VLA on the Centre Admin Portal (CAP) within seven days of the examination taking place. This will include providing information relating to: the time the candidate came under staff supervision; any special arrangements made for the candidate to reach the centre; the reason for arriving late; the actual start and finish times of the examination; the time the candidate started and finished the examination; any assurances that the candidate did not access and was not made aware of the paper's content prior to sitting the examination.

Conducting exams

Head of centre

- Ensures venues used for conducting exams meet the requirements of JCQ and awarding bodies

Exams officer

- Ensures exams are conducted according to JCQ and awarding body instructions
- Uses an exam day checklist to ensure each exam session is fully prepared for, unplanned events can be dealt with, and associated follow-up is completed

Dispatch of exam scripts

Exams officer

- Dispatches scripts as instructed by JCQ and awarding bodies
- Keeps appropriate records to track dispatch

Exam papers and materials

Exams officer

- Organises exam question papers and associated confidential resources in date order in the secure storage facility
- Attaches erratum notices received to relevant sealed question paper packets
- Collates attendance registers and examiner details in date order
- Regularly checks mail or email inbox for updates from awarding bodies
- In order to avoid potential breaches of security, ensures care is taken to ensure the correct question paper packets are opened by ensuring a member of centre staff, additional to the person removing the papers from secure storage, e.g. an invigilator, checks the day, date, time, subject, unit/component and tier of entry, if appropriate, immediately before a question paper packet is opened
- Ensures this second pair of eyes check is recorded
- Ensures question papers are always be kept in their sealed packets until the second pair of eyes check and log have been completed
- Ensures the second pair of eyes check takes place immediately before each question paper packet is opened in the designated examination room
- If the question paper packet needs to be split for different rooms on one or more sites or for an access arrangement, ensures the check takes place in the secure room
- Ensures unused question papers are not released to any individual until 24 hours after the awarding body's published finishing time for the examination (Where a candidate is sitting an examination scheduled for the afternoon session on the following morning under an overnight supervision arrangement, unused question papers for that examination must not be released to any individual until the candidate has completed that examination)

Exam rooms

Head of centre

- Ensures that internal tests, mock exams, revision or coaching sessions are not conducted in a room 'designated' as an exam room
- Ensures that when a room is 'designated' as an exam room it is not used for any purpose other than conducting external exams
- Ensures only approved centre staff (who have not taught the subject being examined) are present in exam rooms to perform permitted tasks
- Ensures the centre's policy relating to food and drink that may be allowed in exam rooms is clearly communicated to candidates
- Ensures the centre's policy on candidates leaving the exam room temporarily is clearly communicated to candidates

Food and Drink Policy (Exams)

Bottles of water are allowed in the exam room, if the bottles are clear, transparent and without labelling or writing.

Food is only allowed in the exam room if agreed beforehand and is due to a medical condition. Food must be out of original packaging and wrapped in a clear wrapping.

Leaving the Examination Room Policy

Candidates are discouraged from leaving the exam room during an exam and are not permitted to leave within the first 30 minutes or the last 20 minutes of an exam, unless in the case of an emergency or illness.

Any candidate leaving the room before the end of the exam must be supervised by a member of the exams staff. If the invigilation of 1:30 (or 1:20 in art or on-screen exams) would be affected, the exams officer or lead invigilator must be contacted to escort the student out of the room. The student must not leave the room without adult supervision.

If a candidate has a toilet pass, they will be allowed to leave the room, with supervision, only after the first 30 minutes of the exam.

Any student leaving the room to use the toilet must remove their blazer until they are ready to go back into the exam room.

Additional time will not usually be given for a toilet break. However, if a student is unwell it is the centre's discretion as to whether the time back will be allocated.

An invigilator must record the absence from the room on the incident log, including: time out, time in, candidate name, seat number, reason for leaving and the name of the person supervising the student.

- Ensures invigilators understand they must be vigilant and remain aware of incidents or emerging situations, looking out for malpractice or candidates who may be in distress, recording any incidents or issues on the exam room incident log
- Ensures invigilators understand how to deal with candidates who may need to leave the exam room temporarily and how this should be recorded on the exam room incident log

- Provides authorised exam materials which candidates are not expected to provide themselves

Special consideration

- Gathers evidence which may need to be provided by other staff in centre or candidates
- Submits requests to awarding bodies to the external deadline

Special Consideration Policy

Queen Mary's High School adheres to the JCQ document 'A guide to the special consideration process'.

A candidate must provide any medical or other evidence that may be required to determine eligibility for special consideration.

Where eligible, special consideration will be applied for at the time of the assessment where candidates have been fully prepared and have covered the whole course but performance in the examination, or in the production of coursework or non-examination assessment, is materially affected by adverse circumstances beyond their control.

For candidates who are present for the assessment but disadvantaged, Queen Mary's High School must be satisfied that there has been a material detrimental effect on candidate examination performance or in the production of coursework or non-examination assessment.

1. Where a candidate may arrive for an exam and is clearly unwell, extremely distressed and/or may have sustained an injury that requires emergency access arrangements to be put in place:
 · the candidate will be kept comfortable and under centre supervision from the required time, while appropriate arrangements are put in place for the candidate to take the exam in the best possible conditions
 · a judgement will be made on how the candidate's situation or disposition affected performance in the exam
 · where appropriate and where eligible, special consideration will be applied for
 2. Where candidates may be affected by a major disturbance in the exam room (emergency evacuation, etc.), an online application for special consideration will be submitted to the relevant awarding body where candidates have been disadvantaged.
 3. Special consideration will be applied for an allowance on the last paper taken in a day when a candidate has been entered for three or more exams timetabled for the same day and the total duration of those papers is more than 5 hours 30 minutes (GCSE, Level 1 and Level 2 examinations) or more than 6 hours (GCE and Level 3 examinations). (Where extra time has been used following formal approval, this will be included in the calculation. Supervised rest breaks will not be included in the total duration of the papers when applying for special consideration.)

4. Where a candidate may be affected by a minor disturbance in the exam room caused by another candidate, such as momentary bad behaviour, a mobile phone ringing, or a momentary fire alarm, the candidate would not be eligible for special consideration. The centre must not submit applications for special consideration for trivial cases. Examples of trivial cases which would not warrant special consideration include, but are not limited to:

· A bird tweeting outside the examination room
· A lorry reversing
· A toilet being flushed
· Doors in a corridor adjacent to the examination room opening and closing
· Very short, momentary noise from, for example, aeroplanes, helicopters or lawn mowers

Candidates

- Provide appropriate evidence to support special consideration applications, where required

Unauthorised items

Arrangements for unauthorised items taken into the exam room

Valuable boxes/trays are provided in each exam room for any personal belongings not allowed at exam desks and are kept at the front of the room. Mobile phones etc., handed in are kept by the exams officer until the end of the exam. If a candidate is found to have any unauthorised materials on them after an exam has started this is confiscated immediately - the student would be allowed to finish the exam and a malpractice notification reported to the exam board/s. The candidate must be reminded that this could lead to disqualification of this exam and also any future exams.

In the examination room candidates must not have access to items other than those stated in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list or the specification for that subject.

Potential technological/web enabled sources of information are not permitted and all unauthorised items must be left outside of the examination room in student lockers.

Any pencil cases taken into the examination room must be see-through. Any unauthorised items that have been taken into the examination room must be placed out of reach of the candidates (and not under their desks) before the examination starts. This would be at the front of the examination room. If candidates have access to unauthorised items in the examination room this may be considered as malpractice. They could be subject to penalties in accordance with the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures and could lead to disqualification, even if not intentional.

Watches of any kind are not permitted in the exam room. The invigilator, prior to the examination starting, must remind candidates that watches are not allowed and if in the room, must be handed to an invigilator.

Once certificates have been received by Queen Mary's High School, they will be collated in the exams office and checked for accuracy. Certificates are signed for on collection (and the date recorded).

If permitted in writing by the candidate, another person may collect and sign for their certificates on their behalf - photo ID must be shown to receive the certificates.

Unclaimed certificates are kept securely for a minimum of twenty four months. After this time, the school will make a further attempt to contact the candidate and arrange collection. If the certificates remain uncollected, they will be securely destroyed, with a log containing the certificate details (candidate number, awarding body, qualifications and examinations series) and date destroyed being kept for four years.
